GIRLS ON THE RUN

The Girls on the Run Program will be a part of the after school activities provided at HTS next year. The goals of this national program are to empower girls to:

- Have a strong sense of identity
- Successfully navigate the challenges of adolescence and adulthood
- Focus on their unique strengths & talents
- Recognize the power they have to impact their communities in a positive way
- Know the joy that comes from true friendship & real teamwork

Girls who are interested in getting a head start in the program may participate this summer with a once a week meeting. One week Monday –9am, the next week Friday–9am–Monday-9am, Friday 9am and so on.

Contact Donna Sadler if your daughter (rising 3rd–8th grade) is interested in participating this summer @ 583-4420
